*ALL EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE, SUPERVISION AND EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS MUST BE MET IN ORDER TO BE GRANTED LICENSURE IN INDIANA.

*Licensure, certification or registration in another state does not guarantee licensure in Indiana.

EXAMINATION/ENDORSEMENT

The Board has adopted the National Counselor Examination (NCE) administered by the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC). You may use current licensure/certification as a mental health counselor associate in another state to exempt yourself from the examination provided that you have already passed the NCE examination or a comparable examination that also tested clinical skills and knowledge.

PLEASE NOTE: If you did not take the NCE, or a comparable examination that also tested clinical skills and knowledge, to receive licensure/certification in the other state, you will be required to take the NCE before you will be licensed as a mental health counselor associate in the State of Indiana.

If you are currently licensed or certified as a mental health counselor associate in another state and you will be applying for licensure in Indiana on the basis of that license, please continue to read all of these instructions. You will need to meet all education, experience and supervision requirements in order to gain licensure through exemption from examination (ENDORSMENT).

Falsification of any of the information or documentation submitted to the Indiana Professional Licensing Agency is grounds for permanent revocation of a license or permit issued pursuant to this application.
